U. S. GRANT,
Will make Two Trips per Week to the CITY OF ASTORIA!
Carrying Passengers at $10 the Round Trip, (Meals Included.)
The Boat leaves Portland Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7½ A M Returning leaves Astoria Thursdays and Mondays at 6 o'clock A M
Every person purchasing a Passenger Ticket will be presented with one of 900 Prize Tickets, to be drawn on the 1ST DAY OF AUGUST, 1867, for the following Prizes
Steamer U. S GRANT, to be divided into 6 shares;
ONE BLOCK OF LOTS IN EAST PORTLAND, divided into 8 shares, or one lot to the share, viz. Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, Block 17, opposite the "New Columbian" Hotel; and at the terminus of the proposed Suspension Bridge;
ONE GOLD WATCH, worth $100;
150 CORDS DRY FIR WOOD, in 5 shares, to be placed on the Brooklyn Wharf.
The steamer is 64 tons burthen, 62 horse-power engine, propeller wheel, draft of water 5 feet. She is being thoroughly refitted and refurnished as a Passenger Boat The Boat will be delivered in perfect order, free from all incumbrance, and Warranty Deeds made for the real estate, to the persons drawing the same Tickets can be filed at C P. FERRY, in Portland, where the money will be left on deposit till the prizes are drawn and delivered
Any person having a claim against me, and wishing a ticket, can get an order for one by calling on me on board the boat. The person drawing the gold watch can have $300 in gold coin, if preferred
C P FERRY, Broker, H J. LADD, ex-Sheriff, ALEXANDER, U S Marshal, and D. S. HILYER, Merchant, of Portland, are the Committee and Judges to direct the Drawing of Prizes. The Prizes will be drawn before the 1st of August, if all the tickets are taken before that time
The above liberal offer is made to the traveling public to enable the subscriber to pay his debts, and not with any reference to speculation, as all the property is valued at much less than its cost, (the Steamer alone having cost $11,000), and the price for carrying passengers to Astoria being much less than the usual fare.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 26.

Fenian Meeting at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—A very large and enthusiastic Fenian meeting was held here to night. Addresses were made by James Gibbons, of Philadelphia, Vice President of the Brotherhood and Major McWilliams Already 2000 young men signed the military roll and $3000 were subscribed for the purchase of uniforms, etc After the meeting adjourned, Senator J. W Fitzgerald called a secret meeting of the Brotherhood to take action in regard to President Roberts' tour to Paris.

Surratt's Trial.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The Time's special says the evidence in the Surratt trial is unimportant, as relating to the general conspiracy, and not particularly involving the prisoner. Gen Grant testified to the fact of Jacob Thompson being in the rebellion service Surratt listened with great interest to the details of his mother's arrest, and exhibited much curiosity to see Gen Grant.

The President's Tour

HARTFORD, June 26.—The President on his arrival was heartily cheered and received with distinguished honors by both houses of the Legislature
PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—A meeting of merchants, bankers and other citizens called to arrange a reception for the President on his return from the East.

Southern News.

CHARLESTON, (S. C.) June 26.—In the case of Boak and others, tried for the murder of Roe in a recent duel, the jury rendered a verdict of "not guilty" and the prisoners were discharged.
Judge Mason issued an order providing for the next Jury panel being constituted in conformity with order No. 12, of Gen. Sickles's, declaring the right of all citizens, without regard to color, to serve as jurors
BALTIMORE, June 27.—The Firework's Factory of Joseph L Bond, exploded this morning The entire building was demolished The proprietor was so seriously injured that his life is despaired of A woman named Humphreys, who was seriously injured, will recover
The Times' special, concerning Sickles, says that the appropriation of half a million for the cost of reconstruction, will be barely sufficient for his district. Sheridan expects to complete the work in his district for half that amount
The sentiment of most of the Congressmen at present favors the shortest session, say two weeks, with provision for a meeting in October
Accounts from Georgia and the Carolinas report excessive rains, rotting the corn and cotton. Rivers are rising and swamps and fields are being overflowed.
NEW YORK, June 26.—The Herald's New Orleans special says that Mayor Heath's message to the City Council announces the discovery of an alleged fraudulent over issue of nearly four hundred thousand dollars in city notes. The Mayor says the city is not liable in law for the redemption of over issues City scrip is considerably depreciated, and some of the merchants utterly refuse to receive it.
A cargo of negroes was landed at Port Padre and another was expected somewhere else
Governor Wells, the President not having acted in the case, is about to issue a proclamation declaring himself to be the rightful Governor and Flanders a usurper, and installing the sheriff and other civil officers not to obey his orders. It is believed that this is the law under Shanberry's opinion, and he takes this course by the advice of several lawyers.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A Supreme Court decision has been given compelling Edwin Forrest to pay alimony to Mrs. Forrest from the time the suit was instituted.
WASHINGTON, June 26.—Hon. H. E. Peck, Minister Resident at Hayti, died at Port au Prince, of fever, June 9th
The U. S. steamer Sacramento was totally wrecked off Cocononda, near Madeiras All hands were saved The Sacramento was a screw sloop-of-war, 1,367 tons register, carrying seven heavy guns and commanded by Capt Collins
NEW YORK, June 26.—Putnam & Son, booksellers, ship to-day ten tons of school books for Japan, The list includes 13,000 elementary books. They have a contract with the Japanese Government to deliver these and future shipments there at about the same prices as wholesale dealers pay here, freight and insurance included
ST. LOUIS, June 26.—The recent injuries by flood to the Kansas Pacific Railroad have been repaired. Trains are now running to Fort Harker. No Indian troubles in Kansas have been reported since Saturday.
The Territorial government is about to be organized for Alaska. Two applicants for the position of Governor are now in Washington. The Iowa Democrats nominated Charles Mason for Governor
The Pacific Mail stock opened at 38 and closed at 40½. Cleared—Ship John Tucker for San Francisco.

Intelligence from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, June 24.—Advices from Queretaro to the 8th via Galveston, report that when Marquez was assured of the loyalty of Queretaro he began to proceed to open the documents left with him by Maximilian and found one on the abdication signed by Maximilian in favor of young Iturbide. Marquez thereupon proclaimed Iturbide Emperor of Mexico under the regency of the Empress Carlotta, and also created thirty of the most noble Liberals and and build them as hostage for the safety of Maximilian and his companions.
There has been no authoritative denial of the proclamation which Maximilian is said to have issued recently It is said that the terms of the capitulation were made in accordance with the established usages and laws of nations. The Liberal General who made these terms has been placed under arrest
The last reports from the City of Mexico say Mendoza has commenced executing hostages seized by him, and some of them have already been shot.
NEW YORK, June 26.—Santa Anna's son protested against the arrest of his father. The protest is directed to the U S Consul at Havana.
City of Mexico advices of the 2d inst., report that a grand review of Diaz's army, numbering 11,000 men, has occurred.
Diaz writes that Juarez will occupy the city within the week.

A KENTUCKY CONGRESSMAN ELECT.—J. Proctor Knott, the individual who was elected Congressman in the Fourth Kentucky District by the rebel Democracy at the late election, is a good specimen of his party. He emigrated to this State from Missouri since the war. Some time ago, in a conversation with a gentleman who had been a Colonel in the Union army, Knott declared that he had made up several companies of soldiers for the rebel army in Missouri, and he gloried in it. He said if it were in his power he would "wipe every d—d Yankee from the face of the earth;" and when asked to explain whom he meant by "Yankee,"

The Two Ideas

There never were but two fundamental ideas of Government in our country, and these are and have always been antagonistic One of them is the national idea and the other is the local sovereignty idea. The one is calculated to build up and preserve a nation, the other to pull down and destroy it The tendency of the one is toward national unity and harmony; the tendency of the other is toward disintegration and civil war The advocates of the national idea were the great men who constructed the Constitution to form "a more perfect Union," or as Washington said, "to effect a consolidation of the Union;" the advocates of the sectional idea were the men who wished to adhere to the old Confederation, and who, on being overborne by the national party, afterwards put the same old destructive, denationalizing idea on a new dress and urged it on the country under the name of "Democracy." No chuntry can live which essays to build on such theory, The complete failure of this "Democratic" idea in the old Confederation necessitated the formation of the Constitution and the assertion of the national idea. "Democracy" afterwards got control again, again the Government stranded, and again the national idea had to be asserted This "Democratic" idea has twice signally failed—first under the Confederation when the wheels of Government came to a dead stop; secondly, in 1860 when the same thing was repeated, though in another shape and way. In 1789 the national party rescued the Government from the chaos of "Democracy" and put it in operation under the Constitution, in 1861 the national party again rescued the Government from a like chaos and started it again in its Constitutional vigor Hence the action of the national Union party since 1860 has been simply a reaffirmance of the idea which discarded the Confederation and produced the Constitution. As there are only two ideas of Government in our country, there are consequently only two parties. One of these parties is national or "Federal," as it was called at the time of its formation; the other is a party which would divest the Government of every attribute of nationality, and set up as many different "sovereignties" as there are States in the Union

Mail Communications.

Arrangements are now being perfected which, [illegible] the mails from Virginia [illegible] to Portland in twelve [illegible] Montana Territory, now [illegible] ted to carry the mails once [illegible] week from Helena to Missoula City It is [illegible] that the mails shall go through in [illegible] Missoula to Helena in [illegible] a City in the other, [illegible] ed at a single day Coaches [illegible] Missoula to the two points [illegible] the mails will be [illegible] over the land portion of the [illegible] Walula to Missoula, and by [illegible] Lake and Clarke's [illegible] It is the intention to make the service [illegible] and expeditious than it has been heretofore and the Montana mails, the bulk [illegible] have been sent by Salt Lake [illegible] documents are to be brought through by [illegible] route thus effecting a great saving both [illegible] and in the cost of transportation.

The two steamers which were building on [illegible] met with the steamer which has been running for some time on the lake, are now complete and are understood to be making [illegible] as far as Thompson's Falls This [illegible] opens that route from here to Montana — though much work will be required on the road in several places to render it perfectly easy for travel [illegible] appropriated by the General Government would place both routes in excellent [illegible] and that in view of the [illegible] upon the Territories we [illegible] the Territories as well as to Oregon the matter will recommend itself to the attention of Congress.

SOUTHERN POLITICAL MOVEMENTS —A late dispatch from Washington states that the Congressional Executive Committee is receiving the most encouraging accounts from the South The work of organization is going forward with wonderful rapidity Virginia is the most backward and Louisiana the most forward of the rebel States In the latter the influence of General Sheridan is felt in the most positive manner, and in the former progress is only assisted by the firmness of General Pope Those at work for the Committee report the blacks as a unit for the Republican party, but in the back country and in the smaller communities they are to a considerable extent under the influence of our late masters The Committee is now working its men raising funds in the North and nearly every day agents are dispatched to different parts of the South

The New York Times professes to have learned on what high authority, as coming directly from behind Johnson's chair himself, that he was not privy in any way to the release of Jefferson Davis and that he knew nothing whatever of Underwood's intention, was not consulted on the subject, but fully expected [illegible] would take place, and that him self and party [illegible] And is he now aware of the reasons which led to a different results Judge Underwood acted wholly on his own responsibility—so far at least as any persons officially connected with the Government were concerned.

General Sterling Price, alias "Pap Price," has gone into the commission business in St Louis He tried to carry Missouri, of which State he was Governor, into secession, but failed He was once very wealthy and influential, but broken in fortune, wealth and reputation, he fled to Mexico, and now returns to Missouri to do what he can for the "lost cause" by regularly supporting the Democratic ticket.

During his New England tour, acting President Johnson has been under the control of a respectable class of citizens, who have kept him sobered so prevented a repetition of the scenes of the Western progress last year By keeping the source of his "inspirations" away from him they have completely stifled his oratorical propensity, to the great credit both of himself and the country

A regiment of 800 men is enlisting in Montana for the Indian war. The Helena Herald of June 5th calls earnestly for volunteers to fill up the complement At that time 200 more were wanted

The Helena Herald of June 8th has the following item

The Northwest Fur Company's boat, the Miner, which arrived at Benton on Friday last, left the Benton post, on Monday, on her return trip, being destined to repeat the voyage with another full cargo from St Louis to the mountains this season The Miner is probably the only boat that will undertake the task, but that she will succeed there is no doubt, as she has before this proved herself capable of making the second trip in one season.

The Washington Star is an Administration organ, yet in speaking of the colored voters of that city and the cajolery of white demagogues to secure their votes, it institutes this comparison

Perhaps some of the whites who are making themselves so ridiculous at some of the ward meetings in the solitish, pell mell scramble for office over the shoulders of the colored men, do not like the contrast afforded by the sensible, dignified conduct of the colored men, as compared with their own antics

There are two incomes in Chicago that exceed $100,000

STATE ITEMS

There are three Indian convicts in the Penitentiary

The Salem Record of the 26th says Last evening Dr Fiske in presence of Judge Peebles examined Jesse C Hutton an insane man, whose friends desired to send him to the State Asylum The unfortunate man was three years in the Oregon Cavalry, and his superiors pronounce him a most excellent soldier At the expiration of his term of enlistment he went East to join Hall cook's corps, and upon the disbandment of that corps he returned to Oregon Hutton has friends near Silverton He will be sent to the Asylum

There is an old Democrat in Columbia county whose name we can give in case any questions are asked who is wonderfully pleased with the Nashy papers and declares every one of them greedily bolstering them to be written by a genuine Democrat and certain Democratic doctrines pure and unadulterated He habitually borrows the Oregonian for the purpose of reading these letters and always expresses himself highly delighted with them Why will not the Democratic papers of the State publish them for their highly intelligent and appreciative class of Democratic readers?

CHOLERA.

MR PERRY DAVIS —The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds Hoarseness, CHOLERA CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc, THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonful, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine glass full of hot water. I can confidently, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera in the summer of 1865. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil changes of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worse case in an hour, or at the most, half a day I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache Gratitude and a desire for its general use has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor

COMMON COUNCIL.—Last evening the "mow" Common Council met and hurried through a long programme of exercises as if something of an embarrassing nature might show itself on the surface. The new Councilmen were all present, except Mr. Fechheimer as follows: Besser, Burch, Mulkey, Porter, Ripley, also Messrs McCraken and Hallock, members holding over. The following are the proceedings:

The minutes of the three last meetings were read and approved.

A remonstrance from P. Marquam, representing 200 feet against the improvement of Front street, between Harrison and Hall, was received and filed.

A communication from Thos. O Young was received relative to to needed repairs on Engine House No 4, and to make room for the reception of the steam engine, which was referred to Committee on Fire and Water, with instructions to make repairs.

The Committee on Streets reported an ordinance, with an amendment, to improve Second street.

The Street Commissioner reported his action in removing a dead dog, and also recommended that the grass on the Plaza be disposed of and removed immediately—which reports were favorably acted upon.

Recorder Hoffman made a report for the month of April, the item of which we failed to procure, which report was ordered filed.

The City Surveyor made a report estimating the cost of improving Fourth street from A to Harrison, which was laid on the table.

The following bills were allowed and warrants ordered drawn for their payment: Recorder Hoffman's fees for month of April, $100 00; H. L. Hoyt, City Marshall, for fines and board of prisoners, $7,940; O. L. Severian, for iron work for Hook & Ladder Co., $25; John Wesley, boarding city prisoners, $5 00; Herald printing bill, $35 50; Mr. Vogelsiel, carting a dead dog from out the city limits, $2; bills of judges and clerks of elections, $2 per day, each; city officers, salaries, one month; Baumgauer & Rosenblatt, rent of Council Chamber, one month, $70. The bills of the steamer Fannie Troup for passage of Walker to Portland and for freight, was referred to Committee on River Improvement.

Bill of S. Wilhelm for 30 mounting badges, rosettes, gloves, etc., of $137 50, was laid on the table. Bill of the Light Artillery for firing minute guns on the day of Sawyer Holmes burial, $144 50, was laid on the table.

The notice for the improvement of Second street from A to Morrison, was indefinitely postponed. An ordinance was read first time for the cancellation of $231 10, being part of an appropriation by ordinance, to improve Washington street; was read second time by its title; rules suspended and ordinance passed. An ordinance making an appropriation to defray the expenses incurred by a resolution of the Council, was read first and second time.

An Ordinance for the improvement of Second street from A to Morrison, was read a third time and laid over, and the Surveyor instructed to estimate the cost of improving the remainder of said street, within said limits.

A resolution was passed authorizing the Street Commissioner to fire the salute ordered by Council.

A resolution was passed requiring the City Surveyor to report the probable cost of improving Second street from A to Morrison.

On motion, Council adjourned.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.—The following were the concluding exercises at St. Mary's Academy on Tuesday:

19. Mental Philosophy; Amanda Man and Irene Smith.
Those two young ladies graduate at this term of the school and received all the following classes. They are deserving of great commendation for the attention and care they have displayed during the past few years to their studies.
20. Music; a solo entitled "What are the Wild Waves Saying?" by Amanda Man.
21. Moral Philosophy; logic criticisms.
22. Vocal Music; song by Miss Kate O'Neal entitled, "Beneath the banner where my vows were plighted."
23. Class in Geometry, Trigonometry.
24. Instrumental two hand piece; Emma Pembrun, Kate Darro, Kate O'Neal, Amanda Man, Irene and Elmira Smith; "La Sta Noctese."
25. Geology
26. Recitation; subject, "David and Bathsheba," by Elmira Smith.
27. Botany.
28. Essay; "A Festive Eve," by Irene Smith.
29. Music; eight handed, "Morceaux elegantes," Emma Pembrun, Kate Darro, Irene and Elmira Smith.

The following is the order of exercises yesterday:

1. Grand Opera March; four performers, Amanda Man, Kate O'Neal, Irene and Elmira Smith.
2. Welcome to Vacation; exhibition song; solo by Kate O'Neal, duet, Misses Richardson and Witherell, and thirty six in the chorus.
3. The Nun's Prayer; two performers, Kate O'Neal, Amanda Man.
4. Salutatory Address, by Irene Smith.
5. Ozza Ludra; six performers, Misses Man, O'Neal, Dwyer, Pambrun, I. and E Smith.
6. Essay, by Amanda Man.
7. Hope and Sorrow; solo and trio, Kate O'Neal, Alice Harrison.
8. Favorite Duet; six performers.
9. Daughter of Erin; Hattie Gleason.
10. The Distant Chimes; trio, Miss O'Neal, Witherell, Richardson.
11. The Two Angels; two performers, Misses O'Neal and Man.
12. Personification—Religion; Misses Pembrun, Dwyer, Man, O'Neal, Irand E. Smith.
13. Quio accepdet; solo and chorus.
14. Essay, by Irene Smith.
15. At the foot of Vesuvius; quartette.
16. Our Sovereign's March; four performers.
17. A Sacred Drama; Misses in tableaux.
18. The Graces; nine performers, by infant department.
19. Presentation of Diplomas and Gold Medals to Misses Amanda Mann and Irene Smith.
20. Shakespeare's March; four performers
21. Distribution of Premiums; sixty-two awards made.
22. Beloved Friends, Adieu; song and chorus.
23. Valedictory Address; by Amanda Man, who deserves great credit and all the praise that her friends give her.
24. Finale

INSURANCE COMPANIES.—We unwillingly penned an item for yesterday morning's issue which was justly liable to a wrong construction. We had no intention whatever to reflect upon the Union Company, for we have no reason for supposing that they are not as prompt as any other company in paying losses. We were led to the belief that some informality had delayed the payment of the losses of Mr Fitzgerald and so should have written it. We learn that the delay in payment arises from the fact that Mr. F. insured at the Idaho agency, and of course without mutual communication between the agencies, it could not be paid. No doubt Mr F. (if he has not already) will very soon realize the amount of his insurance from the Union Company.

HAPPINESS.—What could be more delightful on these delicious Summer evenings than to sit on a mossy bank by the lady you love, with the cool brook bubbling musically by with the gentle breeze fanning its odoriferous wings and dispensing native perfumes around you; with the eyes of your lady love meeting your own with the sweet coyness of modest admiration, with every surrounding and every bright prospect to make you supremely happy, and lastly, with a suit of that delightful summer clothing sold by Berman Bros, for $9 upon your person? Such a situation, to our mind, would be a paradise.

PICTURE OF GREAT SALT LAKE CITY.—Philip Ritz, Esq., has at great expense procured a lithograph picture of Salt Lake City which can be seen and purchased at Shanahan's Picture Gallery, First street. It is truthful in all its details, and by those who have seen the beauties of the inland Mormon city, declare it to be a perfect copy of the original Great Salt Lake. The residence of Brigham Young, the very large theater building, temple, tabernacle, and city hall are prominent and easily recognized by all acquainted with the city. Price $2, and if framed, according to the style.

A THIEF.—A steam saw mill on Pudding river, about five miles from Aurora, was burned, as we are informed, on Friday night last. The amount of loss is not stated.

PECULIAR SAIL BOAT.—J. W. Sutton, Esq., is constructing on his wharf at the foot of Alder street, a very peculiarly shaped boat for pleasure seeking purposes, to be sailed on the Willamette. It is 14 feet in length, 7 feet beam at the stern (being the widest part of the boat), 31 inches deep, and half-decked, with a water board. The plan adopted is entirely new. It is supposed by Mr. Sutton that a high rate of speed will be obtained. The boat is to be launched, probably, Saturday evening, and her sailing qualities will be tested the succeeding day.

P. T. Co.'s DRY DOCK.—At Oregon City this company has lately constructed a dry dock, the like of which perhaps has never before been built. It is constructed very much on the plan of a canal lock. By raising certain gates, the water rushes furiously into the same and lifting it in the very short space of ten minutes, and by very much the same operation it is again emptied in the same period. The dock was fully tested yesterday and found to be a perfect success, and the steamer Active now lies in it undergoing repairs.

CEMENT ROCK.—Col McCraken yesterday exhibited to us a specimen of the rock which is being manufactured into cement. It is found near Grey's Bay at the mouth of the Columbia, and has been thoroughly tested in San Francisco and is a perfect success. Mr. Cummins is the owner of the quarry. This is an important discovery for this section of country, and will add another useful commodity to the long list of productions of the upper Pacific coast.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Only one case was disposed of in this court yesterday morning. Wm. Thompson having become thoroughly drunk, his Honor only charged him one day's occupancy in the city jail. Mr. T. being in rather a ill-spirited condition he asked for an opiate to cause sleep. Our private opinion publicly expressed is that that if he don't dry-up guzzling lightning whisky, he will soon sleep that sleep which knows no waking.

NEWS HERE.—The Salem Daily publishes the following item, dated "Portland, June 26th: The Senators returned from Lewiston last evening. They expressed themselves pleased with the prospects of the country." This announcement will be news here, as neither of the Senators is known to have returned yet, though divers persons seem to be anxiously awaiting them.

CROPS IN UMPQUA.—Mr. J. W. F. Huntington informs us that from intelligence entirely reliable he learns that the crops in Umpqua are very short, in fact never before has the prospect for so poor a crop excited in that county. The crop of oats and hay, he says, will be so short as not to pay for the cutting. We should prefer to have heard a different tale from that section.

P. T. Co.'s WHARF.—The People's Transportation Co. have already commenced a decidedly needed improvement of their wharf. An addition is to be made to the south end. A roof is also to be built over that portion which is now uncovered. A scow load of lumber and timber arrived this morning from Oswego, with which to commence work.

THE RANGER.—This steamer arrived yesterday, bringing a large quantity of wool from Cowlitz Prairie, and 30 barrels of salmon from the Whitehead fishery. Capt. Fisher informs us that the saw mill at St. Helens had broke an engine bed-plate a few days ago, but was now about ready to run.

SPIRITUAL FESTIVAL.—Yesterday afternoon, while the ladies and gentlemen were temporarily absent from the Hall, we dropped in and took a look at the game. From what we saw, we concluded everything had been done to insure a happy time, which we have no doubt was experienced by all present.

PRODUCE.—Yesterday the Senator brought down the following freight: 92 bxs mdse, 575 sks flour, 9 bales wool, 3 cases mdse, 30 sks bacon, 191 sks wheat, 11 half bbls produce, 40 wagon axles, 1 bale goods, 2 gunnies produce, 1 coop chickens.

BADLY BITTEN.—A son of Charles Mills, about eighteen years of age, was badly bitten by a large dog, yesterday, owned, as we are informed, by Mr. Frank Browne. Both the young man's arms were badly lacerated by the animal.

THE HUNTERS.—"Charley" Stewart, "Jack" Knott, and Oscar Kilbourn, and G. W. Hodgkinson, Esqs., "went after" pigeons yesterday, and bagged eighty. A pretty good day for hunters.

THE WIDE AWAKES play this evening on their ground at five o'clock, sharp.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—IDAHO CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M. Duffell, President. G. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Sight and Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.—We saw, yesterday, at J. L. Parrish & Co's something new in the way of an organ—a Bronch instrument called the Organ Harmonium—invented by Alphonse Rodolphe. It is a very considerable modification of this organ as we have them from the American manufactories. It is provided with sixteen stops, each of which exercises a distinct and peculiar effect upon the tone. The bass stops are the Forte, Jeu Doux, (soft, sweet) Basson, Clarion, Bourdon, English Horn; the treble stops are Expression, Tremolo, Scotch Dioppipe, Flute, Clarionette, Fife, Hautbois, Voix Celeste, Forte, and Knee or Full Expression. The effect of these stops in changing the tone is most surprising. For instance: from the flute to Voix Celeste with Full Expression, the tone changes from what sounds precisely like a soft flute, to the full grand harmony which we would expect from an Angel choir—what the name imports. The Key-Board is movable and can be adjusted to any key, to any instrument, or to the voice of any singer. Other changes are no less surprising. The instruments are of the most perfect workmanship and of the highest English; have taken the first models at all thegreat European Expositions. The prices range from $175, to $500. Persons in want of an instrument should call and see them, for it is impossible to get a correct idea of them, except from personal inspection. J. L. Parrish & Co. are sole agents for the Pacific coast.

Freedom.

Once I wished I might rehearse
Freedom's power in my verse,
That the slaves who taught the strain
Shook if throb must be snapped his chain.
But the spirit said, "Not so,
Speak it not, or speak it low,
Name not lightly to be sold
Gift too precious to be prayed,
Passion not to be expressed
But by bearing of the breast:
Yet—wouldst thou the mountain find
Where this deity is shrined,
Who gives to seas and sunset skies
Their unspent beauty of surprise,
And, when it lists him, waken can
Brute or savage into man;
Or, if in thy heart he shine,
Blends the starry fates with thine,
Draws angels nigh to dwell with thee,
And makes thy thoughts archangelic be;
Freedom's secret wilt thou know?
Counsel not with flesh and blood,
Loiter not for cloak or food
Right thou foelest, rush to do!"
In an age of fops and toys,
Wanting wisdom, void of right,
Who shall nerve heroic boys
To hazard all in freedom's fight—
Break sharply off their jolly games,
Forsake their comrades gay,
And quit proud homes and youthful dames,
For famine, toil and fray?
Yet on the nimble air benign
Speed nimbler messages,
That wait the breath of grace divine
To hearts in sloth and ease.
So nigh is grandeur to our dust,
So near is God to man,
When Duty whispers low, Thou must,
The youth replies, I can

SEEING THE BLACK CROOK UNDER DIFFICULTIES.—The local of the Enterprise thus describes the rush to the new melodeon opened at Virginia City, Nevada:

The Black Crook Melodeon was rammed, and crammed, and jammed last night. Hundreds went away, being unable to get near the door. During the whole evening there was a large crowd in front of the building, extending across the sidewalk and out into the street—staying there, and God knows for what. We visited the place about half past eight o'clock and were unable to get near the door. Being a reporter, and therefore one not likely to be baulked by small obstacles, we made a noise that was heard in the interior of the building. There was held a consultation of the powers below, and it was finally agreed that we should come down through the sidewalk. Accordingly a sort of grating or trap-door was raised and we swung down into the dark profound. Friendly hands caught us and guided us to a window which opened into the melodeon some eight feet above the bar. Crawling through this we were again aided by friends to descend, and were finally in a position to reach the floor of the hall. But then we were no better off than outside. Every seat was filled, every aisle and every avenue was filled, the stairs leading up to the street were filled, with men hanging to the railings, and men even crowded upon the bar until there was danger of it being broken down. This is no flight of the imagination; we actually entered the theater in precisely the manner we have [illegible] nothing the interior found it [illegible] we said. As to the performance, [illegible] say that we heard a little singing, [illegible] caught a glimpse of a head, leg or [illegible] and a joke, but we believe the performance on the whole was a good one—gay—for the [illegible] was uproarious, and everybody appeared [illegible]. The general expression in the faces of those who were in the position to see said plainly as words, "We've struck it!"

LEPROSY IN THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—It is generally supposed that lepers are confined to Oriental countries, but such is not the case. They [illegible] No one is considerable numbers, many [illegible] have become victims to the [illegible] disease of leprosy in the Sandwich Islands that the Legislature has placed them in a [illegible] themselves. This action was determined upon [illegible] The board of health, in whose hands a supplementary service was placed, selected several tracts of barren lands, embracing two beautiful valleys near the village of Molokai, and many acres of the best potatoes, kulo, bread fruit and banana were planted. The [illegible] were purchased cattle, goats, pigs and fowls, and supplied the [illegible] with fishing implements and mechanical and agricultural tools. The lepers [illegible] were reckless, refused to [illegible] use, and defied all control. [illegible] scarce, however, they grew [illegible] provided proper obedience, those who were at [illegible] work acquiescing in the [illegible] weekly allowance made to each [illegible] consisted in four pounds of [illegible] pounds of beef or salmon, and [illegible] to work, five pounds of each of [illegible] liberty to come for more if [illegible] in allowance of rice, tea and [illegible] and other articles needed by [illegible] wance, with what they raise [illegible] es abundant supply of food. [illegible] bruary, 1867, there were 115 [illegible] 79 males and 36 females, [illegible] Chinese. The first lepers [illegible] and, during that year, [illegible] This large mortality is [illegible] the restlessness of the lepers. One of [illegible] fines is to expose themselves to [illegible] and then lie down in their wet clothes. Still, [illegible] the worst cases improve, owing, probably, [illegible] the freedom which they enjoy and the bountiful means of [illegible] at their disposal.

THE TROUSERS.—There was one [illegible] between the dresses of most of the [illegible] nations of the ancient world and [illegible] Greeks and Romans. Trousers, or [illegible] as, were worn by the Oriental nations—[illegible] Persians, Assyrians, Parthians—and by the principal Western nations of Europe known to the ancients, especially the Dacians and Gauls. The first women who are known to have assumed this dress were the Amazons; but even these ladies, unlike their successors, the bloomers, modestly limited the time of imprisonment in such masculine habiliments to the period of warlike expeditions, after which they resumed the customary and graceful attire of their sex, laying aside the garb of manhood with the helmet, shield and spear. These garments were made of skins or richly wrought cloth, sometimes fitting tightly to the limbs, like those in use here, and sometimes loose and hanging in folds over the shoes, like the Turkish trousers. The Greeks never wore them at all; nor did the Romans until the Emperors, who attempted to introduce breeches among their subjects, as a means of making them forget their ancient liberties.

Lucy Stone and Mr. Blackwell addressed an audience at White Cloud, Kansas, a few evenings ago. Says the Kansas Chief:

We venture to say that nine-tenths of the audience were agreeably disappointed in Lucy Stone. They expected to see a masculine looking female, whose appearance and voice bespoke the termagent and shrew. On the contrary, they saw a small, plain, earnest lady, with the kindest of countenances, whose look and tone betokened the true woman; who had language at command to express just what she wished, and who uttered not a word to offend or grate harshly upon the feelings of any one. She was devoid of affectation and false delicacy, but called things by their right names, and permitted no mock modesty to deter her from speaking plain truths.

"SMOTHERED" OUT OF $20,000.—Last summer an unknown German died, as was alleged, of excessive heat, on an emigrant train, between Bordentown and Trenton, N. J., and his body was claimed by two Germans, who said they were relations, and he was buried in Trenton. The Bordentown Register says a few days since some parties direct from Germany arrived at Bordentown. It appears that he had in his possession over $20,000, with which he intended to start a business in the West. His friends asserted that the two men who claimed relationship were impostors, and that they appropriated to themselves the property of the dead man.

After the battle of New Orleans, a tavern-keeper of that city complained to General Jackson, who happened to stop in his bar-room, that some of his officers had threatened to cut his throat from ear to ear unless he gave them credit for all the liquor they might want. "If they cut your throat I'll have them hanged in less than ten hours afterwards," said the General, "I'd rather you'd have it done ten minutes before," said Bonifacio, whereupon the General "smiled."

INDIANS IN ARMS FOR THE WHITES.—An Indian runner arrived at Lapwai on Wednesday evening, direct from Blackfoot in eight days. He reports about 500 of the Flat Heads, Pen d' Oreilles and Cœur d'Alenes, having joined about 1200 whites, in arms against the Blackfoot. A forward movement was soon to be made into the Blackfoot country.

A Glasgow merchant, on his death-bed, sent for a Free Church clergyman. He asked the reverend gentleman; "Do you think if I were to leave £18,000 to the Free Kirk, my soul would be saved?" "Well," answered the cautious minister, "I couldn't just promise you that; but I think it's an experiment well worth trying."

France obtains fifty per cent. more wheat per acre than the United States, and England more than one hundred per cent greater crops than ours, and the secret is superior cultivation and manuring.

THE CROP PROSPECTS IN THE SOUTH—THE RECONSTRUCTION BILL, ETC.—A gentleman from St. Louis, (Mo.), traveling through portions of the South, writes as follows:

I have frequent opportunities to converse with planters and farmers and learn the prospects for the gram crop were never better. One man is planting 2,700 bushels of corn, and has 600 acres of wheat. The planters below Vicksburg are quite discouraged, and with good reason. Their plantations are completely inundated. The water has been receding for a few days, but the rise of the river above gives promise of another overflow. There is no help for them except from the Government, they have neither the force nor the means to repair the levees—the States cannot do it and the Government must. A tax of one cent to the pound on the cotton saved would more than pay for rebuilding and keeping them in repair, besides rescuing the plantations from ruin. It is really heart sickening to see these plantations so completely swamped. To day we took on board some people from one of the finest plantations on the river; the buildings were surrounded by water, and the staging from the boat was placed to the very door. A sad looking plight they were in, huddled together on the porch anxiously awaiting their deliverance. I find all who have anything at stake earnestly working for reconstruction as provided by Congress—from policy understand, not from any love they bear the Government, those who have nothing at stake—and their name is legion—are fierce and blatant in their mutterings and cursings.

PARTY PREJUDICE.—A good story is told of a countryman from New York, who was visiting Washington at the time when Mr. Van Buren was Vice President. He was a red hot Democrat, and of course held Mr. Van Buren in the highest reverence. He sat in the circular gallery in the Senate, gazing at the Vice President with a mingled feelings of awe and State pride, when suddenly a tall and manly form appeared at the side of the hall, and beckoned to Mr. Van Buren. There was little business doing, and the Vice President calling a Senator to the chair, joined the person mentioned, when both seated themselves, on the sofa, snuffing from the same box, the hand of the Vice President was laid playfully on the knee of the other, and over and anon a hearty laugh would escape them, showing that, whatever might be the topic, it was agreeable to both.

"Is that Mr. Calhoun with the Vice President?" said his country friend to a person near him,

"No, sir."

"Is it Mr. Benton?"

"No, sir."

"Is it General Wall?"

"No, Sir."

"May I ask who it is?"

"Why, that is Mr. Clay."

"Mr. Clay!" almost shrieked the man; "and does Martin Van Buren speak to him? Not me if ever I vote for him again!"

And the fellow striked from the hall, firmly believing that the country was lost.

THE OLDEST PERSON IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—A correspondent of the Manchester Mirror, from Windham, New Hampshire, furnishes the following facts about Flora Stewart, who has lived a half a century beyond the allotted three score and ten:

In Londonderry, N. H., about two miles northwest of Derby village, near the line of the Manchester and Lawrence Railroad, resides Flora Stewart, a negress, once the slave of the grandfather of Henry Wilson Simpson, now eighty years of age, whose mother at his birth was nursed by Flora. She is reputed to be 120 years of age. Mrs. Simpson has data proving it to be not less than 119. Flora is full of vim, with remarkably retentive memory. She has been a long time a member of the Methodist Church, and on one of my visits to the lady I learned that she had just completed the re-reading of the Testament. Mr. Simpson gave her a bill and without spectacles she looked at it and said: "Why, Wilson, this is five dollars." Her memory embraces the incidents of a century.

I called upon her one day with that noble specimen of humanity, Rev. Captain Durgin, and he said his interview with her was the most pleasant incident of his life. She related incidents of a dinner, where, said she, "I made up thirty pounds of sugar with my own hands into cakes, and for dinner were killed cattle, turkeys, geese and chickens, and they had roast pigs, each, with an ear of corn in his mouth."

COLORED DELEGATES.—The Baltimore American thus speaks of the colored delegates who attended the recent Republican State Convention in that city:

Cleanly and respectable in garb, and most decorous and orderly in demeanor, their faces beaming with intelligence, gladness and joy, they occupied the seats assigned them, by the side of their white colleagues, watching with an eager interest, quite touching to behold, this great era in their lives—the first formal and practical recognition on the part of their white fellow citizens of the great truth of the common brotherhood of man—of that divine utterance "that God hath made of one blood all men that dwell upon the face of the earth." Nor were these colored men mere spectators. While they evinced a modesty and diffidence that denoted their good sense and good breeding, they were by no means lacking in giving intelligent expressions of their views; and, when called upon to give utterance to their sentiments, did it intelligently and judiciously. Those of them who were called forth by their white friends to address the Convention astonished all by the ability and eloquence with which they presented their views. These speeches so earnestly commend to our readers as the best evidence we can give of the capacity of our colored fellow citizens for intelligently exercising all the rights of the American citizen.

SARDINES.—The lovers of the "little fishes biled in oil" should know that the fish which furnishes them with such a delicious repast belongs to the herring family. The popular name was given to Cuvier, who was the first to assign to it a distinct place in the finny tribe. He called it sardinia, from which it is known as the sardine. Sardines are caught principally along the coast of Brittany and, to a less extent, in Portugal. The fisheries employ a large number of men and women. The fishing vessels—of eight or ten tons each, and carrying a crew of from six to ten—go out two or three leagues from the land, and watch for shoals of fish. When they see them, they spread their gill nets for them, and scatter on the water the bait that has been prepared, and which consists of the eggs and flesh of fish, especially of cod and of mackerel, and sometimes of salted fish. Large quantities of sardines are taken in this way. Some are salted on board, and others on shore, and either sold fresh or prepared for shipment. For the latter purpose, they are salted and packed away in tin cans, with melted butter and olive oil, which is poured upon them in almost a boiling state. The cans are sealed up to prevent the air reaching the fish, and are then ready for shipment.

A "MULE STORY.—A New Orleans paper says that a Justice of the Peace of that region was called upon to decide the ownership of a mule. The swearing was equally balanced, and the justice saw no way of settling the question except to the experiment upon the theory that "the ass knoweth his master's crib." The result as told was as follows:

If the mule in dispute should, when taken to a spot within two hundred yards of plaintiff's crib, go to it of its own free will, the mule should be adjudged to the plaintiff; if he shouldn't go, the mule was to be adjudged to the defendant, the present possessor. The mule was brought to the spot, but failed to budge an inch. By a few well administered blows he was prevailed upon to move, and did so at such a rapid rate that he was soon out of sight. He was followed, headed off, returned back, and seeing the door of the plaintiff's yard open, rushed in sure enough. Like a sensible mule he made for his fodder. But the plaintiff did not triumph; the mode was deemed compulsory, and the mule was forthwith given to the possessor.

BIDDY'S CALL TO BREAKFAST.—The Cleveland Plaindealer tells the following

A lady of this city, in giving directions to a new servant, the other evening, said

"Now, Biddy, as soon as you have got breakfast ready to-morrow morning, you must ring the bell."

"Shure an' I'll do it, mum," said Biddy.

At an unusual early hour the next morning there came a fearful tug at the door bell—a tug that almost broke the wire, and set both husband and wife in an upright position in bed. The ringing continued with frightful energy. The master of the house pulled on his pants, and without waiting for slippers or dressing gown, hurries in surprise to the door. There stood Biddy on the door-step, with a countenance radiant in the consciousness of a faithfully discharged duty, and with a low courtesy, exclaimed:

"Breakfast is ready, sir"

CAUSTIC.—The Boston Transcript says "The person who picked up a lavender-colored glove at Music Hall, on Sunday evening last, belonging to another, and neither had it on the seat nor took it to the office of the Superintendent, can have the mate to it by calling at that office, and no questions asked."

Miscellaneous Items.

The Princess of Wales will be home for life.

It is said that the Empress of the French is again enceinte.

James Gregory, aged thirteen, married his cousin, same age, in Ohio.

An infant, with a $1,000 note pinned to its dress, was recently left in a London railway station.

Mrs. Davis, a lady of Salem, Mass., 75 years old, died recently of fright occasioned by a severe thunder storm.

Du Chaillu says that when he remonstrated with the Africans for their intemperance, they replied "Look at the gorilla; he drinks water."

A man at Stratford killed a cat recently and buried her, but when he went to the grave shortly afterwards, he found her quietly seated upon it.

A dutiful son, named Dugan, the other day, sued his father in a New York court for the funeral expenses of his mother, and a verdict of $101 was rendered in his favor.

The Crown Princess of Prussia opened a fair in her palace for the relief of indigent soldiers. The Turkish Ambassador immediately bought a bouquet at her table and paid 1,000 thalers for it.

At a spiritual meeting a short time ago, the prophet Baalam was called up and asked if there were any jackasses in his sphere. "No," he replied, indignantly, "they are all on earth."

A Michigan squaw was asked if her papoose was not a half-breed, whereupon she replied, "No, not a drop of white blood in it—half Indian and half missionary!"

A man has applied for a divorce from his wife at Chicago, on the ground of extreme cruelty. She has "walloped" him regularly for nineteen years until, having the spirit of a man, he won't stand it any longer.

Mr. Peabody has received from the Empress Eugenie an autograph letter, complimenting him for the munificent liberality he has displayed on both sides of the Atlantic, and characterizing him as "the great benefactor of humanity."

A Scotch paper says that a certain Miss Lloyd, of Lamphey, has given her tenants in Carmarthenshire and Pembrokeshire wholesale notice to quit because their wives and daughters wear crinoline—a practice to which Miss Lloyd objects.

The local of the Dayton (O.) Journal tells of a Mrs. Wade, near that town, who is the mother of three little girls so much alike that to know Sarah Jane from or Jane from Mary she adorns their infant necks with red, white and blue necklaces.

The jewels presented by the Count de Flandre to the Princess Marie, now his wife, are estimated at upwards of $30,000. The precious stones of which they are composed formed part of the jewels of the Princess Charlotte, the first wife of Leopold I., the latter having bequeathed them to the Count de Flandre. Sixteen workmen were employed for seven weeks in resetting the whole.

It is whispered abroad that the sudden illness of the Empress Eugenie was caused by a pamphlet sent to her, and into France, by Gonzalez, the Spanish Minister of the Interior. This pamphlet, it is said, was full of spiteful revelations concerning the early life of the present Empress of the French; and was sent out in retaliation for some wicked pamphlets about Queen Isabella, which have lately appeared in France.

At the New York theatre the other evening, at the close of the first play, a beautiful basket of flowers was handed up to Miss Sophie Worrell, Reposing amid these flowers was a beautiful set of diamonds—a brooch and ear rings—valued at $3,000, and presented by "a friend." Miss Sophie came forward in a few moments bearing her superb present, and signifying her pleasure and thanks in looks more expressive than words.

A negro woman left her two little children locked up in her room in Philadelphia, and the following chapter of accidents ensued: The children set fire to the room while playing with matches, and they were both suffocated to death; a fireman, while endeavoring to extinguish the flames, was struck on the head with an iron hook and killed, and the house of Dr. Clintock, in the vicinity, caught fire from a spark of a steam fire-engine at work on the first fire and was almost entirely destroyed.

George Francis Train says our modern marriage service should be read thus: "Clergyman—"Will you take this brown stone, this carriage and span, these diamonds, for thy wedded husband? Yes. Will you take this unpaid milliner's bill; this high waterfall of foreign hair; these affectation accomplishments, and feeble constitution for thy wedded wife? Yes. Then, what man has joined together let the next beast man run away with, so that the first divorce court may tear them asunder."

England is selling those "wooden walls" that were once her glory. Five-line-of-battle ships and first class frigates were sold recently for $340,000; these ten ships have an aggregate tonnage of 24,306 tons, an aggregate nominal horse-power of 4,010, and an average age of about 12 years only; the boilers and machinery of most of them are in sea-going order; indeed, one 80 gun ship has never used her engines. These vessels originally cost, including expense of placing new machinery in some of them, about $20,000,000, and the actual value of the timber and metals at the time they were sold was $971,690, yet they were sold for almost half that sum. England knows that iron-clads alone can compare with the navies of other nations and she values her wooden ships at next to nothing.

PUNCH ON FEMALE SUFFRAGE.—Punch has the following "Proposed Demonstration of the Fair Unrepresented"—at once a hit at female suffrage and a satire on universal suffrage:

The Executive Council of the National and Fashionable Association for the vindication of feminine rights to the enlightened but enslaved enchantresses of England—Greeting: Ladies, Non-Electors! It has been asserted by timid men, both in place and out of place, that you are not to be trusted with that sweet thing in politics—the suffrage!

Mark those words "not to be trusted," and inscribe them on your work box cushions in pins with a peculiar point.

The aspirations of beauty for electoral privileges are natural and noble. Breathe soft, ye winds, and wait a sigh from Lydia to the poll!

Calumny whispers that you are too accessible to flattery—that a handsome candidate would certainly be carried by a show of hands in primrose gloves (sixes); that a knowledge of figures (not arithmetical) and a willingness to admire and praise them would supercede all other qualifications.

Let such discreditable views be at once dissolved, and let Pall Mall have ocular demonstration of your Spartan severity and scorn.

Avoid agitation as you would a younger son.

Exhibit no obligness, but let your demeanor be distinguished by a lofty, dignified and independent air.

Listen not to the sophists, who tell you that beauty was born to be honored and adored, nor weep it to secure a vote you lose a votary. By order of the Council
